Antioch greets '85 with 19 in. of snow

by GLORIA DAVIS

Antioch took an unwanted championship on New Year's Eve when it started the New Year out with 19 inches of snow dropping on its landscape.

Reports of a 15 inch snowfall over the state line in Kenosha County and eight to 12 inches southward into Illinois brought Antioch the "Golden Shovel Award" from Mike Murphy, Milwaukee disc jockey who recently did a sock-hop in Antioch.

Head of Antioch's street maintenance, Todd Maplethorpe said that by Thursday, two days later, he and his crews were finally putting the finishing touches on a really tough snow removal job.

Two maintenance crews of six worked back to back on 12-hour shifts to do the clean-up job.

"It's an expensive one and very difficult when there's 19-inches to clear-away since we're not really prepared for that kind of an unusually heavy snowfall," Maplethorpe said.

The crews were also hampered by the vehicles that were stuck haphazardly on Antioch's streets. Maplethorpe estimated that his crews towed 70 to 80 cars that were scattered over the village streets.

Mayor Ray Toft was out helping clear parking lots on New Year's Day. The clean-up crews continued to work all night on Wednesday and Thursday completing the work on Main and Lake Sts.

The intersections were salted and re-salted hoping that rising temperatures might make it effective.

"We're prepared with 300 tons of salt this year and if the rest of the winter is like this we'll probably need it all," said Maplethorpe.

Maplethorpe warned that the fact that there was no frost in the ground when the snowfall hit creates an added danger.

After pulling a wet snowmobiler out of a slough during the holidays, Maplethorpe said that snowmobilers and cross country skiers should beware of going in damp or wet areas because there is a great possibility that they will sink through the snow.

Early Thursday the walking on Lake and Main Sts. was still not the best. Some walks had been shoveled after the snow had packed down and frozen, others, mostly where closed stores are were still stacked with snow. But by the afternoon Old Man Sunshine had come out and some of that snow on the sidewalks was melting.

Antioch Township Hwy. Commissioner David Heath, whose responsibility it is to see that both sides of 100 miles of township roads are clear, had five trucks out salting and sanding four hours before the storm hit.

Heath and his men took six ploughs out at midnight and they hit every road in the township and had 90 percent clear by 4 p.m. and all as passable as possible by 8 p.m. New Year's Day night.

Altogether, the township highway department used 120 man hours to clear the roads by the end of the New Year's holiday.

Heath estimated that approximately 150 tons of mixed sand and salt had been put on the roads by then.

Stalled and parked cars where the highway department's biggest problem and the cause of the delay in clearing some of the subdivision roads.

Heath said that the fact that the blacktop was warm when the snow hit and slush was packed into the pavement and later froze, accounts for the washboard-like roads until the temperature got up past 20 degrees when the salt was able to start the melting process.

Wertz family meets for anniversary, reunion

The descendants of a family who came to Antioch in 1900 held a very special reunion Christmas week in honor of Charles and Dot Wertz's 50th wedding anniversary.

The children, grandchildren and great grandchild of Charles and Dot Wertz gathered at their home on Rte. 173 near Tiffany Rd. It was the first time in more than 18 years that the entire family (now numbered 21) has been together for Christmas. (Imagine 21 stockings hanging over the fireplace!)

C.L. Wertz has been in the well drilling business in Antioch for more than 55 years and estimated he has put in more than 3,000 wells in the area. Recently he was an important contributor of information which helped to prevent the dumping of hazardous wastes in the Antioch area.

Wertz learned the well drilling business from his father, Wesley, who came here via the westside of Chicago and then Barrington. He started farming on the old Tiffany farm and then in 1922, began the well drilling business.

Wesley's wife was the former Freida Singer, who lived in Antioch for more than 70 years and passed away in 1973 at the age of 92. Known fondly as "Grandma Wertz" she worked at Pickard China for many years and was active in the Eastern Star and other local organizations.

Dorothy Blair Wertz was born in Greenup, Ill. and moved to the Antioch area while in her teens. She met Charles through "Ham" radio you might say. Charles was an eager beginner and went to talk to Bert Anderson, a "ham," about radio. Dottie was there and there they met. They were married in Woodstock, on Dec. 12, 1934.

Today Charles and his two sons, Don and Bob, all are "Advanced Licenses Ham Radio Operators" and enjoy keeping in touch often via their radios.

Marlene, one of the Wertz daughters, was here with her husband Paul Clawson (a geologist) from Savannah, Ga. With them their children Sherry (an eighth grade teacher), her husband Jim McClain (a marine biologist, and originally from Gurnee,) and their son Matthew, just 11 months old and the Wertz's first great grandchild.

Also with them were their other daughter Kim, a nurse, and her husband Jeff Hester who owns a rental business. Both are from Charleston, S.C.

Coming from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., were Don Wertz, his wife, the former Judy Zelbor, and their two daughters. Karen, a graduate student at Texas Women's University, and Bonnie, a secretary and part time college student. Don owns and operates a vehicle-wash equipment company and supply firm in Fort Lauderdale.

Coming from Flagstaff, Ariz. were son Bob Wertz, his wife, the former Norma Brown who is a home health care director of the Flagstaff Medical Center, and their two children, Wendy (a student at the University of Arizona)

Moose Women were busy during month of December

The Women of the Moose had three December meetings that produced much activity in reaching the membership goal for the 1984-85 chapter year.

The Dec. 2 special Sunday program, honoring the Jr. Graduate Regent Mavis Dingsdale, witnessed 16 new candidates being enrolled. The special meeting was attended by 15 visiting chapters and 58 Antioch members. A dinner following, prepared by the Loyal Order of Moose members was enjoyed by all.

At the Dec. 6 chapter meeting, Social Service Chairman, Maria Skyria and her committee were in charge of the program. Three new members joined the membership rolls that evening leaving the balance of one member to complete the assigned quota which must be met by June 30.

The business meeting of Dec. 20 was attended by 38 co-workers. All received a small Christmas gift from Senior Regent Peggy Learmont. Recorder, Terry Smallwood read minutes and correspondence after the balloting was held on new candidates.

The December birthday marchers, Jerry Polson, Grace Ullrich and Edith Andreas received a gift for their birthdays and each deposited a "penny per year" into the "covered wagon", the symbol of this year's membership theme.

Jr. Graduate Regent Dingsdale was named co-worker of the month and received a card and gift presented by Senior Regent Learmont.

The calendar for January was given. Meetings: January 3 and 17 at 8 p.m. All were asked to attend ritual practice of Jan. 24, 7:30 p.m., as only two practices are remaining before Chapter Rally Day on March 3 at Fox Lake.

Lions, Rotary join to help area needy

The Antioch Lions and Rotary Club have joined forces this past holiday season, to pay for and distribute food baskets to needy families in Antioch Township.

Lion President Paul Maginot and Rotary President Jack Seigmier began planning this joint venture this past summer. Both agree that the clubs should work hand in hand on a project such as this.

The fear was that some families may be duplicated while other families may not receive anything. The hope is that this effort will become larger in the future and more efficiently run.

Between both organizations the total amount of baskets distributed exceeds 100 over the two holidays. All families are assured of remaining anonymous.

Snow makes New Year's quiet for Antioch cops

The same 19 inches of New Year's snow that was such a headache for the Antioch Streets Dept. and the Antioch Township Hwy. Dept. made things slower than average for the Antioch Police Dept.

After making seven DUI arrests over the Christmas weekend, no driving while intoxicated arrests were made New Year's Eve because there was veritably no traffic on Antioch's streets.

Police Chief Charles Miller, who was up north on a vacation, couldn't get back into town and some of the policemen also couldn't make it in, causing those already on duty to work double shifts.

Besides many calls to the police department asking about the travel conditions, the Antioch Police had a rather quiet holiday.

Many parties that were planned were reportedly cancelled and two of the big parties in the village ended with many of the partiers staying at the Tower Room at the Antioch Bowl and the Country House for breakfast.

Antioch will offer road rules for senior citizens

THROWS GAUNTLET

TO ANTIOCH'S "BIG THREE":

The Pabst Muskie Team takes this opportunity to answer your article in the previous Antioch News. It took us an extra week researching the last 10 years of Muskies, Inc. catch and release records and no where did we find the named of Bill Brook, Ron Gas, or Dan Dugenski.

If anyone is interested, the Pabst Muskie team has 57 legal tagged and released fish in the past two years. We take exception to the line in your article that indicates we don't know what legal size is.

As proof of our performance we offer this fact, our team was asked to judge the eight state Muskie Tournament this past year and, as all good muskie fishermen know, it was the most efficient, honest tournament ever run.

As far as the canepole team is concerned, we fully understand why you choose to have one of our team members in each of your boats, why not take advantage of our professional muskie guiding and expertise at no charge?

I don't feel it would be necessary for us to fish in each other's boats, as we have many offers from impeccable fellow fishermen with spotless records as far as telling the truth about fishing; namely Chuck Kempf, Big John Slepiski and George Vistane.

To act as impartial judges, it will make you happy to know that our postmaster Stan "Arnold Palmer" Luta has agreed to give our handicap Will Geers, some time off to fish in this contest.

Also, judging from the canepole teams response, they must have dug very deep to obtain the services of such a noted sportswriter, as Bob "Brown Finger" Deimer. We believe that this shows your true lack of sportsmanship and fair play.

Here's hoping you guys are saving up your pennies, so you can pay off when you lose.

IT'S A FACT!

Water is a manufactured product. Hard to believe? The fact is, water is a most valuable and limited resource. According to the American Water Works Association, your water utility bill pays for the necessary processing of water—the gathering, treating, testing, pumping, storing, distributing and replacing that your water utility does for you, 24 hours a day. The result? Safe, pure water for you and your family.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Those mounds of snow that fell on our town New Years Eve really had everybody hopping.

Antioch Township Hwy. Commissioner Dave Heath's phone was ringing off the hook with people wanting to know when their road was going to get plowed. Dave said most people were polite and understanding.

Did you notice that the worst roads, even two days after the storm, were those taken care of by the county and the state?

Even Mayor Toft got into the act and was out on the snow removal crew on New Years Day. Is that dedication to your village or what?

The St. Bernard Award of the Week goes to Trustee Bob Wilton (better known as "Sargeant Preston of the Yukon") and his wife Lita who went out hunting for their new son-in-law Ron Sarna with their four-wheel drive vehicle when Wilton's daughter Patty called and said he had failed to arrive at work at the Wilmot Ski Hills three hours after he had left home.

And, as usual, Bob found his man walking down the highway after his car had been buried in the snow.

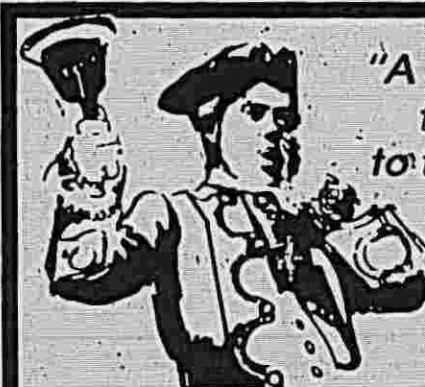

I hear that Antioch Township board member, Homer LaPlante was one of the many who were smart enough to stay with friends after welcoming in the New Year at Harbor Ridge.

I think it's great that some of the area's financial institutions are awarding athlete of the week honors to participants in all sports at Antioch High School. Too often those who don't play basketball, baseball or football are forgotten.

Every time I look out at the icy Tundra outside, I think of that lucky Florence Babusek who is visiting her daughter Laurie and husband Tim in Bermuda. Florence went over to meet her brand new grandson.

Some primitive hunters were forbidden to laugh when digging a pit for a trap, lest their laughter make the sides of the pit fall in.

Antioch blitzes Fenton to face tough ZeeBees

by MIKE PRAMSHAFER

The Antioch High School Varsity Basketball team improved its North Suburban Conference record to 3-2 with an 82-65 victory over the Fenton Bison last weekend.

Junior Don Gunther led the way for the Sequoits with a career-high 24 points, along with 10 rebounds.

"This was a crucial win for us. It set us up nicely for the upcoming Zion game," Antioch head coach Don Zeman said.

Antioch will meet Zion-Benton on Jan. 11 at Antioch, in what Zeman calls "a very big game."

The ZeeBees are currently tied at press time for the conference lead with a 4-0 mark.

Against Fenton, the entire Sequoit team was hot from the free throw line in the fourth quarter, converting 16 of 19 charity tosses when Fenton had to foul to try to get back in the game.

Antioch made 12 consecutive free throws to end the game.

The Sequoits bolted out to a 24-17 lead at the end of the first quarter, but let the lead sink to four points by the half at 36-32.

"We were a bit disappointed at halftime because we couldn't hold a substantial lead. We kept letting them back in the game," Zeman said.

After Fenton had scored the first two baskets in the third quarter to tie the score at 36-36, Antioch called a time out to help stop the Bisons' momentum.

The Sequoits then went on to outscore the Bison 18-6 during the remainder of the third period and took a commanding 54-42 lead going in to the fourth stanza.

Antioch outscored Fenton in the fourth period 28-23 for the 82-65 victory.

Along with Gunther, Zeman singled out seniors Joe Keim, Brad Poulter and Chris Zeien for having exceptional games.

Keim scored 17 points and Zeien chipped in with 14, while Poulter led the team in assists with 16.

Tony Gebauer and Bill Kaht added 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Zeman added that Gunther was eight for nine from the floor and eight for 10 from the free throw line.

Against Zion, Zeman said his team will play a zone defensively for the most part, but added that the Sequoits will play a little man-to-man to keep the ZeeBees off the offensive boards.

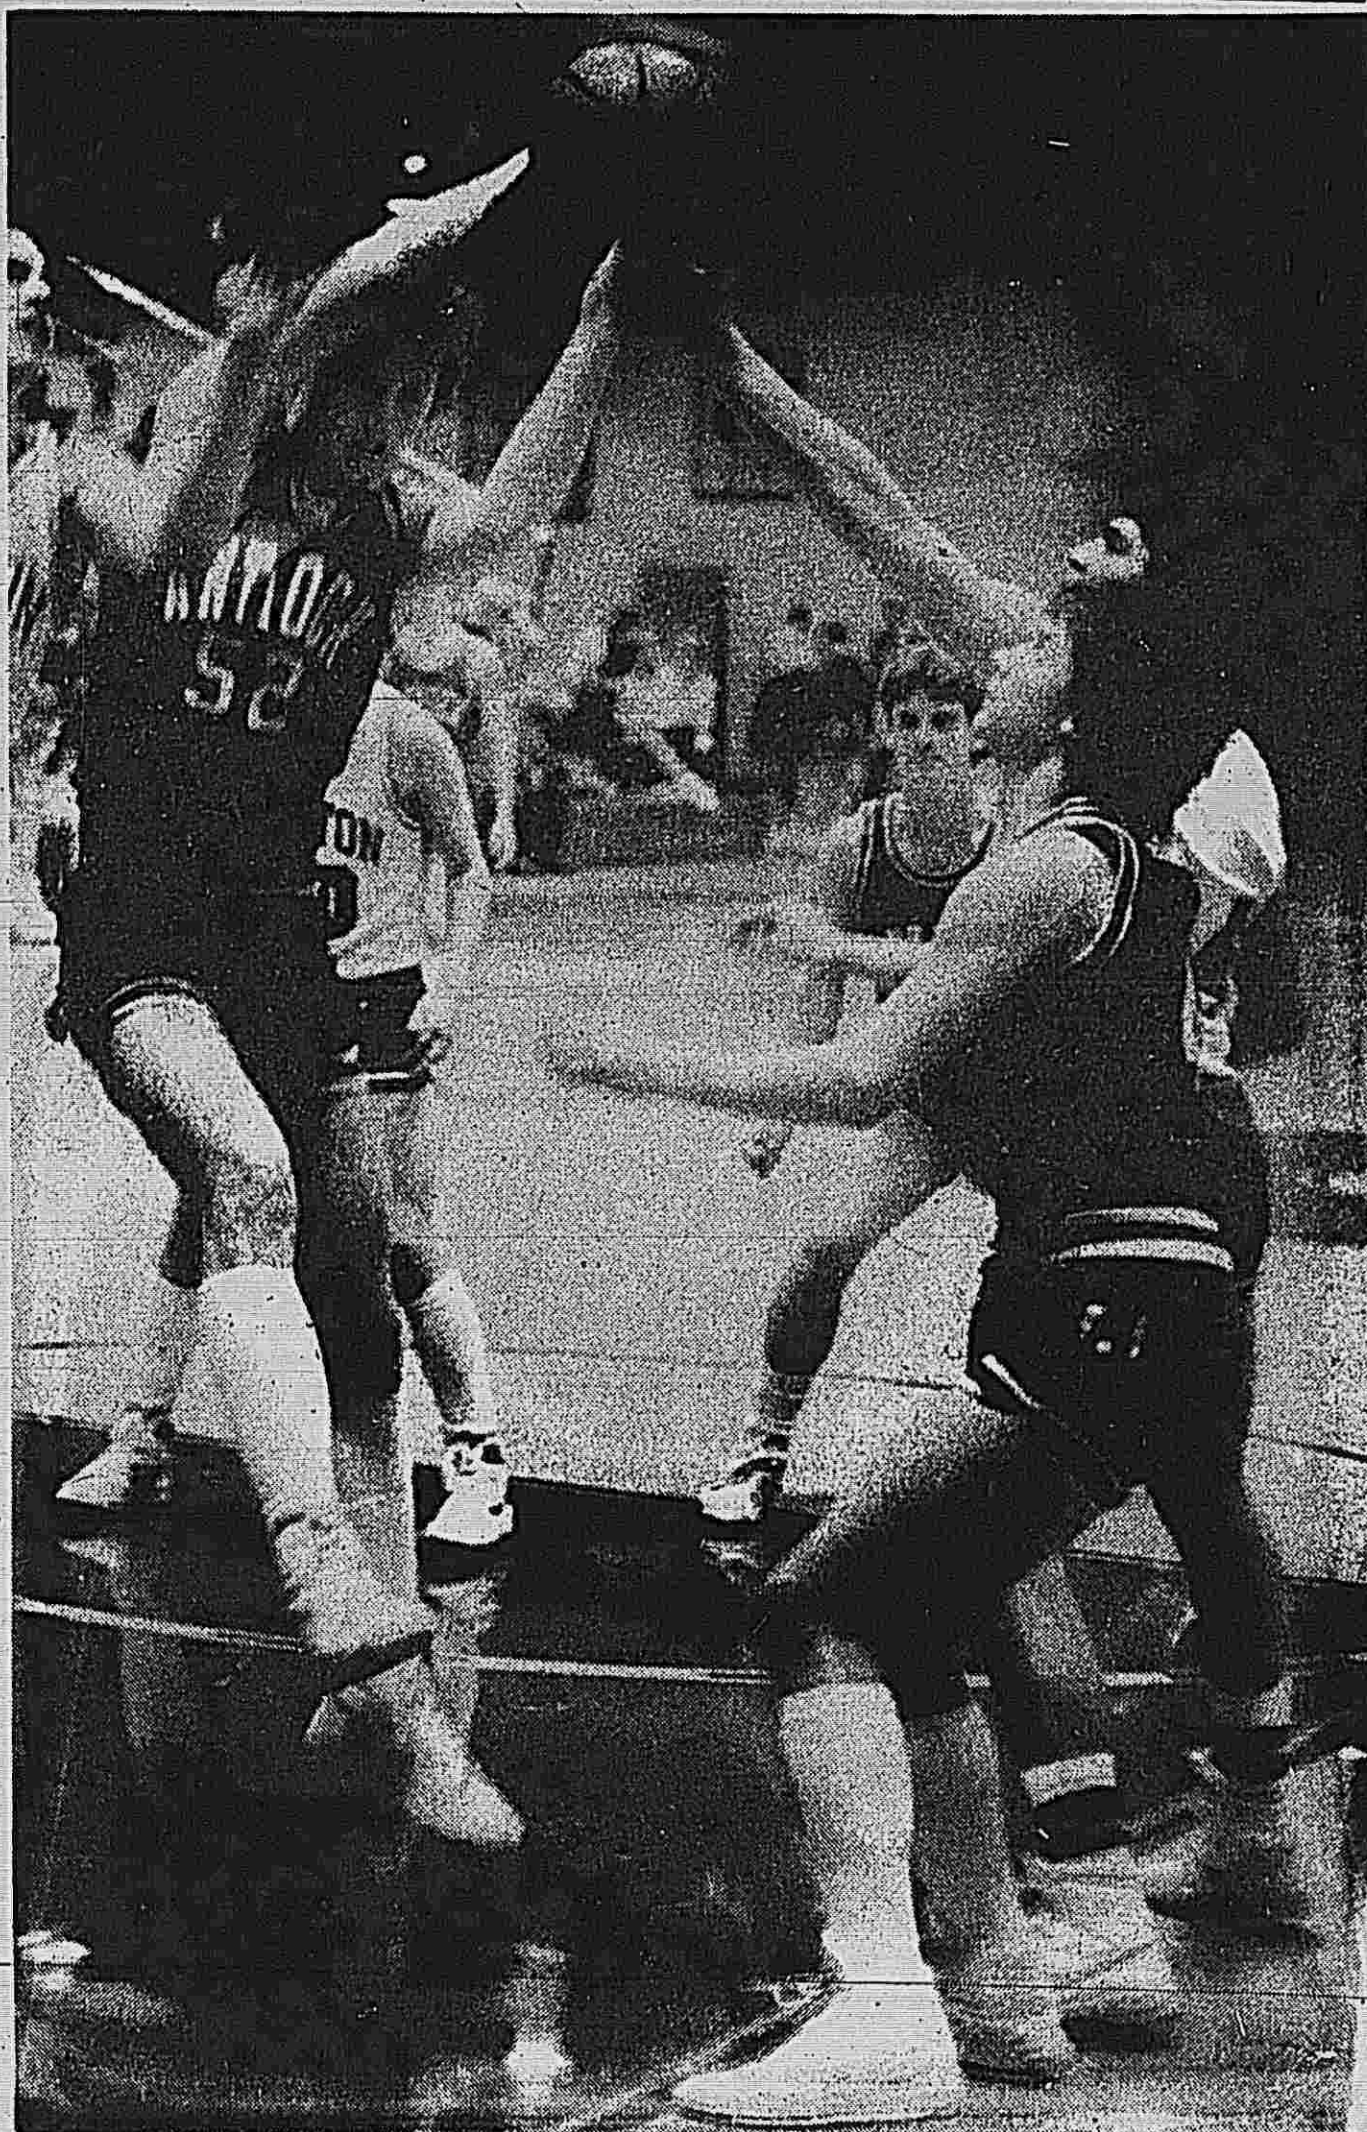

"Zion is a good offensive rebounding team. We'll have to play some man-to-man in order to keep them off the offensive boards," Zeman said.

Zeman also said that Zion is a quick team, and that he expects to see some sort of full-court pressure from them.

"We'll be working on breaking a full-court press all week in practice. I expect Zion to use some sort of pressure and I want to be ready for it," he added.

Antioch will have to contain Zion guard Troy Ruskin and forward Dane Alexander in order to come away with a victory.

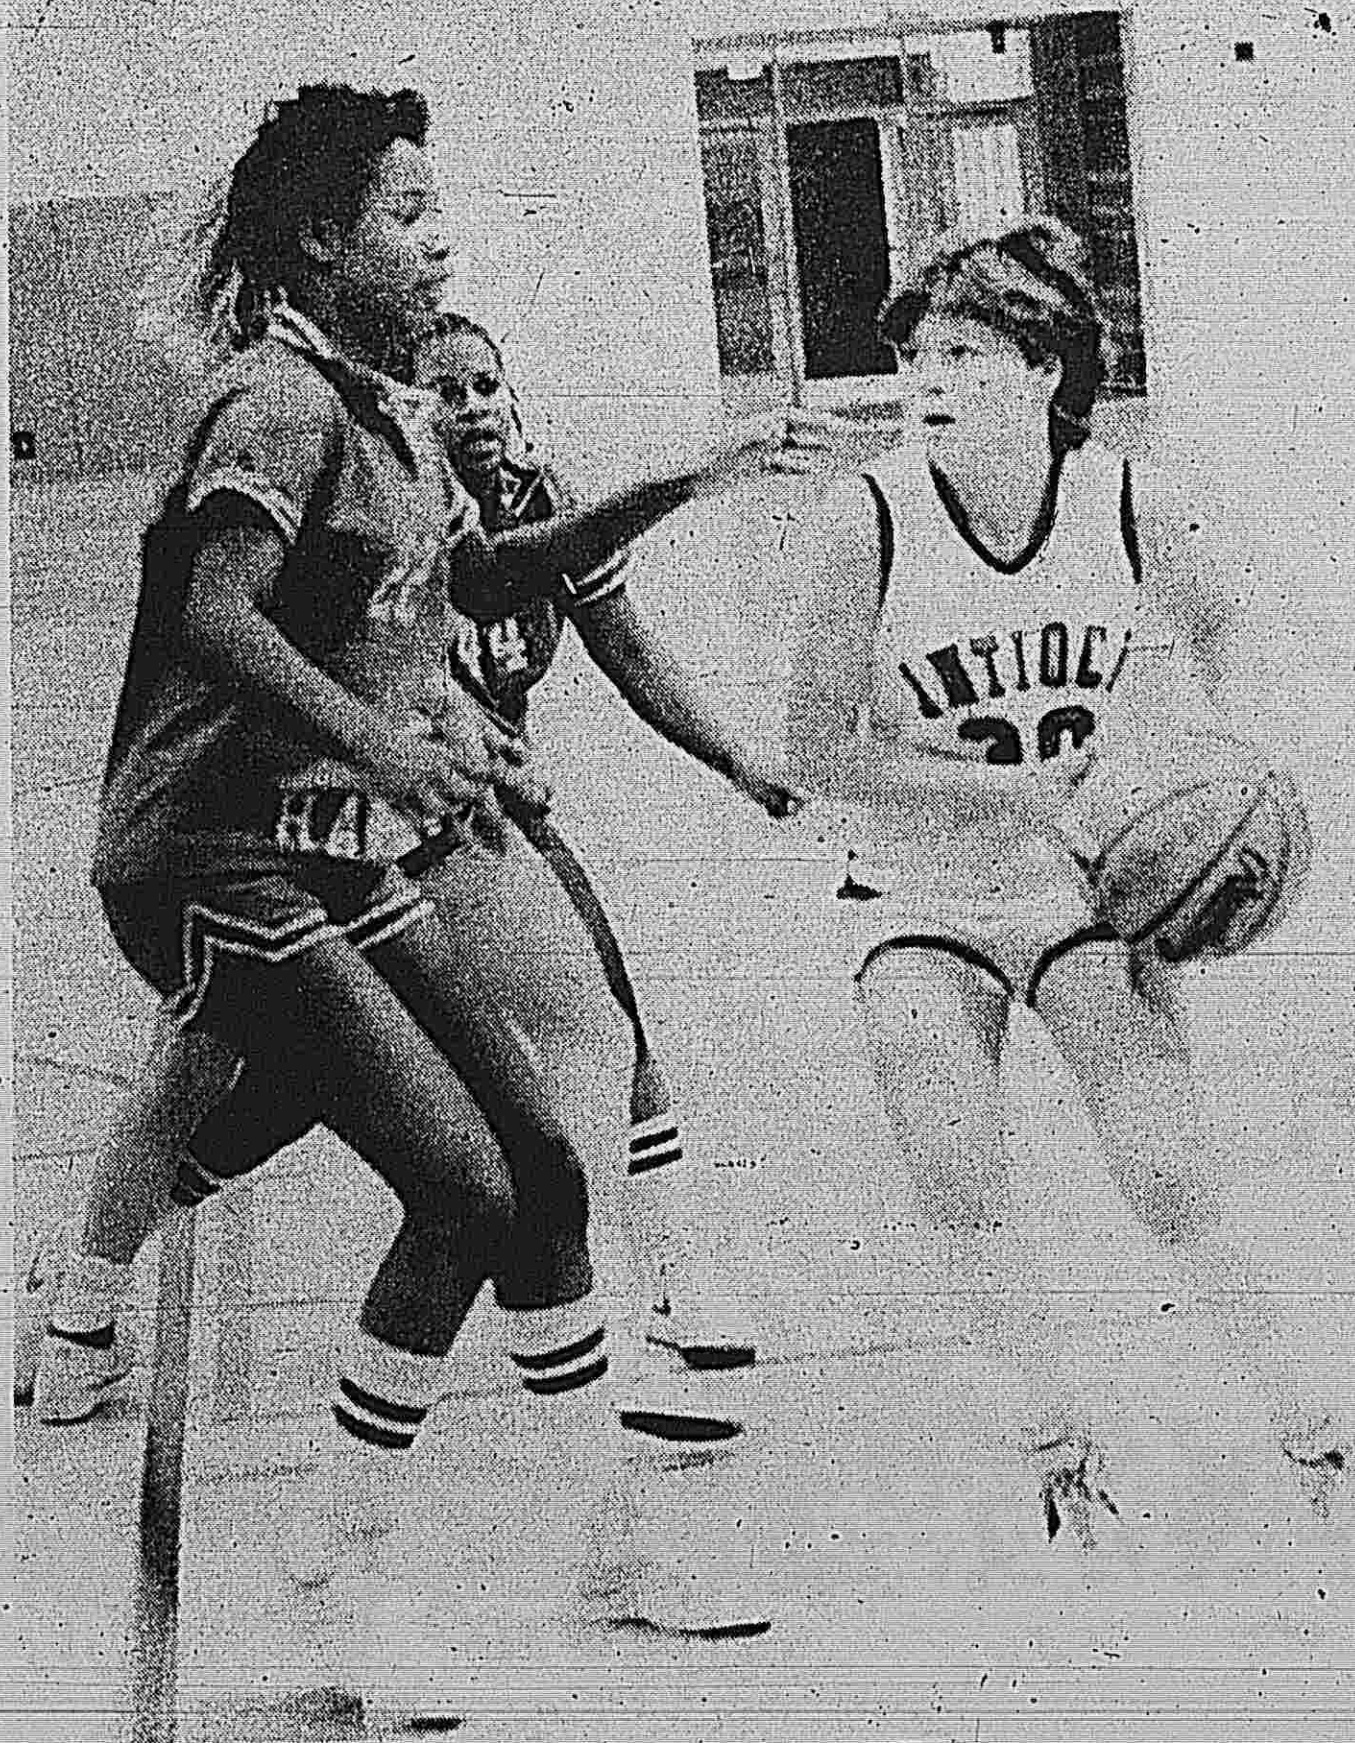

"Ruskin and Alexander are dangerous ball players, but I think we have the personnel to contain them enough for a victory. We're starting to play more like a team now, which is what we need going into this game," Zeman said.

The 1985 advisory council includes: Ray Boberg/Lake Bluff consultant; Rev. H.J. Cook/Waukegan minister; Rev. Paul Cull/Waukegan minister; Pat Dwyer/Shimer College administrator; Gladys Harvey/president-Park City Senior Ctr.; Thomas Inman/Waukegan businessman; Harold Kann/retired businessman; Hon. Oak trees were considered protection against lightning.

It's hard for us to convince people we're serious about conservation.

So we'll let him do the talking.

If you read the newspapers or magazines, you've probably seen many ads from Northern Illinois Gas, encouraging people to use less gas.

Well, despite all those ads, some people apparently still don't believe we're really serious, about wanting people to conserve.

So we thought we'd let Ben Franklin do the talking.

His face is on the $100 bill.

And that's one of the incentives we offer, as part of our on-going conservation program. If you replace your present gas furnace or boiler with a new one that's 77% efficient or better, you can earn a $100 credit on your coming gas bills, 50% provided by Northern Illinois Gas, 50% provided by participating heating equipment manufacturers. (This offer applies to certain brands and models only, so ask your contractor for details.) Or instead of the $100 credit, we can help you finance the cost of your new high efficiency heating equipment.

If your home needs ceiling insulation, we offer help with both financing and installation. To help determine what energy conservation measures would be most worthwhile, you can take advantage of a utility-sponsored home energy audit that's a great value for just $15. And we have special conservation programs to help low income families, senior citizens, and the physically handicapped.

The next time you hear someone say that "the gas company" doesn't really want people to use less gas, we hope you'll remember:

At Northern Illinois Gas, when it comes to conservation, we're a lot more than just talk.

Judge swears in new court staff

Newly installed Chief Judge of the 19th Judicial Circuit Court, William D. Block, swore-in the Lake County Court Services staff during a court room ceremony in Waukegan.

The swearing-in took place in the ceremonial court room on the second floor of the court house in Waukegan on Jan. 4. Repeating the oath of office were 74 professional staff members of the Dept. of Court Services.

Judge Block addressed the group following the administration of the oath of office. He praised the newly sworn-in staff as being members of the best Court Services Dept. in the state, but also, cautioned that under his administration he wanted the Court Services Dept. to be the best.

Judge Block went on to say that he and the entire judiciary recognized the staff as professionals and lauded their combined efforts in the rehabilitation of juvenile and adult offenders who enter the justice system.

In concluding his remarks Judge Block re-stated that under his administration the quest for excellence in all endeavors would be his and the judiciary's goals, and that while proud of past achievements, his administration would not rest on its laurels but strive for higher and better levels of achievement.

Billy the Kid's real name was William Bonney.

Benefactors boost education research

Northern Illinois University's growing collection of research on the history of education has been given an extra boost by its major benefactors.

A $10,500 contribution by Ruth and Harold Blackwell, of Lake Zurich, will help establish an endowment fund to promote, maintain and expand the collection, which is housed in a recreated early 20th century one-room schoolhouse in Blackwell Center of NIU's Gabel Hall.

A lifelong teacher who began her career in a one-room South Dakota school, Ruth Blackwell previously donated her entire collection of educational memorabilia to NIU. The collection includes more than 5,000 artifacts — books, early school furniture, slates, hornbooks, lunch pails, quill pens, even school bells.

Blackwell was honored for her contributions with a special certificate of recognition at a recent NIU commencement ceremony.

She holds a bachelor's degree from Huron College, Huron, S.D., and a master's degree in reading from Northwestern University, Evanston. She dedicated 49 years to teaching before retiring in 1970.

Besides the historical collection, NIU's Blackwell Center maintains Blackwell's education memoirs, recorded on tape as an oral history project.

The center is open to the public free of charge. For further information about hours and group tours, call (815) 753-1421.

SHARING IS CARING — Capt. Dan May, left, of the Salvation Army from Waukegan, accepts hundreds of new gifts from Grace Chen of Libertyville, right, and Angie Maras, Antioch, through the Sharing is Caring program from Hawthorn Center. Since its introduction at the mall in 1978, the program has distributed over 4,000 gifts to the Grove School for the handicapped, hospitals and day-care centers and other needy children in Lake County during the Christmas season.

Foreman to aid in assessment

Lake County State's Attorney Fred Foreman will join 74 other prosecutors, law professors, members of the media, and criminal justice experts to assess major issues which should be addressed by the criminal justice system. Some of the issues to be addressed at the J. Frank Coakley Symposium in March will include jail overcrowding, juvenile crime, narcotics trafficking, search and seizure, exclusionary rule and many other issues.

Foreman serves as Vice President of the Illinois State's Attorneys Association, a member of the nine-member Executive Committee of the National District Attorneys Association, and recently was appointed to serve on behalf of the American Bar Association as a member of the Prosecution Function Committee of the American Bar Association Criminal Justice Section.

In December, Foreman was elected by his fellow prosecutors from the Second Appellate District to represent them on the State's Attorneys Appellate Service Commission. The Commission will supervise and set policy for all Appellate Service Commission attorneys who prepare criminal appeals for state's attorneys in 101 Illinois Counties.

Myths about acne can cause confusion for many acne sufferers. First, acne is neither caused nor worsened by what you eat. Next, the disease is not infectious, nor is it caused by poor hygiene or dirt on the skin. In fact, for those with acne, too much washing can dry out the skin too much.

NURSING DEGREE PROGRAM — Dr. Cynthia Adams, left, dean of the School of Related Health Sciences, University of Health Sciences-The Chicago Medical School, and Dr. Elizabeth Fischer, associate dean, Barab College, have developed the first cooperative degree completion program for diploma nurses in Lake County.
